CREATIVE ANNOUNCES Q4 FY07 FINANCIAL RESULTS

Creative's Previously Announced Voluntary Delisting from NASDAQ Proceeding as Planned

SINGAPORE – Aug. 8, 2007– Creative Technology Ltd., a worldwide leader in digital entertainment products, today announced financial results for the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2007 and the full 2007 fiscal year, ended June 30, 2007. All financial results are stated in U.S. dollars.

Revenues for the fourth quarter were $165.2 million, compared to revenues of $230.9 million for the same quarter last year. Revenues for the 2007 fiscal year were $914.9 million, compared to revenues of $1.1 billion for the previous fiscal year.

Net loss for the fourth quarter was $19.3 million, with a loss per share of $0.23, including restructuring charges of $2.4 million. This compares to a net loss of $12.7 million with a loss per share of $0.15 for the same period last year, including a $10.0 million tax credit.

Net income for the 2007 fiscal year was $28.2 million, with earnings per share of $0.34, including a $100 million paid-up license from Apple for its use of the ZEN Patent in its products. This compares to a net loss of $118.2 million with a loss per share of $1.42 for the previous fiscal year.

The paid-up license from Apple for use of the ZEN Patent in its products was previously included in Creative's revenues for the second quarter of fiscal year 2007, ended December 31, 2006. However, taking into consideration recent comments the Company received from the United States Securities and Exchange Commission, the Company has now classified the entire $100 million as non-operating other income in the cumulative twelve months consolidated statements of operations.

“During the quarter, although we were able to reduce our operating expenses to $51.3 million, we still suffered an operating loss, primarily resulting from a drop in sales in the U.S. market,” said Craig McHugh, president of Creative Labs, Inc. “Despite the lower sales in the U.S., we were able to reduce our inventory by 12 percent from the previous quarter and by 43 percent year-over-year. This helped us to keep our strong cash position at $250 million, even after paying off $75 million of our long-term debt in the period. Looking forward, we will continue to push to bring our operating expenses in line with our gross margins and revenues as we target to get closer to break-even in the current quarter and return to profitability by the end of the calendar year.”

During the fourth quarter, Creative announced its plans to voluntarily delist the Company’s Ordinary Shares from the NASDAQ Global Market, with August 31, 2007 as the last day of trading on NASDAQ. The Company’s listing on the Singapore Exchange Securities Trading Limited (“SGX-ST”), where Creative has the vast majority of its trading volume, will become its sole exchange listing. Safe Harbor for Forward-Looking Statements:

This press release contains forward-looking statements, including statements relating to Creative's gross margins, operating expenses, inventory, profitability and the market potential for its products. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause Creative's actual results to differ materially. Such risks and uncertainties include: Creative's ability to timely develop new products that gain market acceptance and to manage frequent product transitions; competitive pressures in the marketplace; a reduction or cancellation of sales orders for Creative products; accelerated declines in the average selling prices of Creative's products or any prices of components; Creative's ability to successfully integrate acquisitions; potential fluctuations in quarterly results due to the seasonality of Creative's business and the difficulty of projecting such fluctuations; possible disruption in commercial activities caused by factors outside of Creative's control, such as terrorism, armed conflict and labor disputes; a reduction in demand for computer systems, peripherals and related consumer products as a result of poor economic conditions, social and political turmoil; major health concerns; the proliferation of sound functionality in new products from competitors at the application software, chip and operating system levels; the deterioration of global equity markets; exposure to excess and obsolete inventory; Creative's reliance on sole sources for many of its chips and other key components; component shortages which may impact Creative's ability to meet customer demand; Creative's ability to protect its proprietary rights; the vulnerability of certain markets to current and future currency fluctuations; the effects of restricted fuel availability and rising costs of fuel; fluctuations in the value and liquidity of Creative's investee companies; and the potential decrease in trading volume and value of Creative's Ordinary Shares as a result of the Flow Back Restriction that commenced on June 1, 2003 and Creative's voluntary delisting from NASDAQ and to eliminate its U.S. reporting obligations. For further information regarding the risks and uncertainties associated with Creative's business, please refer to its filings with the SEC, including its Form 20-F for fiscal 2006 filed with the SEC. Creative undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statement to conform the statement to actual results or changes in Creative's expectations.
